Student Development Campus Activity Cell (SDCAC)

The Student Development Campus Activity Cell (SDCAC) is dedicated to enhancing students' academic and technical skills by organizing a variety of activities, including workshops and events.

Made with Gamma

SDCAC Events

1. Scientia

   A science-themed event celebrating National Science Day on February 28th. It features interactive exhibits, workshops, and guest lectures.

2. Engenius

   An event celebrating Engineer's Day on September 15th. It includes technical competitions, workshops, and talks from industry experts.

3. Eve Sparx

   An event marking the anniversary of SDCAC in December. It features project expo, games stalls, and competitions,etc

4. TECKZITE

   A national-level techno-management festival held in March or April. It features workshops, competitions, and a platform for students to showcase their skills.

Made with Gamma

SDCAC Activities

Webinars

Inviting industry experts and professionals to share their insights on various topics relevant to students' career development.

Workshops

Practical sessions designed to equip students with valuable skills in areas like programming, design, or communication.

Online Sessions

Interactive online sessions providing a platform for students to engage with mentors, learn from peers, and explore career options.

Made with Gamma